Eklavya model residential schools in Rajasthan

2280. DR. GYAN PRAKASH PILANIA: Will the Minister of TRIBAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the aims and the objectives of the Eklavya Model Residential Schools;

(b) the total number of EMRS in Rajasthan, district-wise;

(c) their teacher-pupil ratio and classroom-pupil ratio;

(d) the achievements of the students; and

(e) whether Government have any plan to improve the EMRS in the country, with particular reference to Rajasthan ?

THE MINISTER OF TRIBAL AFFAIRS (SHRI P.R. KYNDIAH): (a) Eklavya Model Residential Schools (EMRSs) have been set up with the objective of providing quality education to Scheduled Tribes students from class VI to XII in different States in order to enable them to avail of higher and professional level educational courses as well as better job opportunities.

(b) In the State of Rajasthan, seven EMRSs have been set up in the districts of Udaipur (2), Banswara (1), Dungarpur (1), Sirohi (1), Tonk (1) and Baran (1) Two more EMRSs have been sanctioned to the State Government of Rajasthan during the current financial year.

(c) The teacher-pupil ratio is 1:30 and classroom pupil ratio is 1:50.

(d) The State Government of Rajasthan has reported that during the academic session 2006-07, average results for the class Xth board examination have been 42.58%.

(e) Yes, Sir. To improve the EMRSs in the country the recurring grant per school has already been enhanced from Rs. 30.00 lakh to Rs.72.50 lakh (maximum for 420 students) with effect from 1.04.2007.
